MIAMI SYMPHONY ORCHESTRA PRESENTS AN EVENING IN VIENNA

JANUARY 18 & 20, 2008

Overtures, Marches, Waltzes and Dances
Beethoven, Brahms, Johann Strauss and Tchaikovsky

MIAMI – The Miami Symphony Orchestra, under the baton of Music Director and Conductor Eduardo Marturet continues its "Evenings of Great Music" program series with "An Evening in Vienna" featuring overtures, marches, waltzes and dances by the world's most masterful composers, Beethoven, Brahms, Johann Strauss and Tchaikovsky, Friday January 18, 2008 at UM/Gusman Center and Sunday January 20, 2008 at the Lincoln Theatre. Both performances begin at 8:00 P.M.

An Evening in Vienna, a yearly tradition established by the Miami Symphony Orchestra in 1989, is a much anticipated and a celebratory event for Miami audiences. According to Maestro Marturet, Vienna, the capital of Austria, has been recognized as an important center of culture, art and music for centuries, home to the world famous composers who will be featured in the program and many others, including Schubert and Mozart.

The musical selections planned for the Miami Symphony Orchestra's An Evening in Vienna capture evoke the Imperial City in all its magnificence and gaiety with waltzes, marches and operetta highlights.

Individual tickets are still available and can be purchased directly by calling the Miami Symphony Orchestra, (305) 275-5666. Single ticket prices begin at $15. For more information about the Miami Symphony Orchestra and for details on other upcoming concerts, contact (305) 275-5666 or log onto the symphony's website at www.Miamisymphony.org.
